

As a working mother of 2 young children, family time is imperative. There is nothing more exasperating and annoying than having someone call your house for solicitation purposes during dinner, bathtime, and/or bedtime....not to mention infringing on my personal and private time at home. I say leave the NJ Do NOT Call alone!! I enjoy eating my dinner and spending time with my children without being interrupted to find out if I want to buy something!!